Arthur Edward Helmer, Jr.

Arthur Edward Helmer, Jr., age 71, of Beaver Dam, passed away Thursday, June 6, 2019 while surrounded by his family at the Beaver Dam Community Hospital. He was born July 6, 1947 in Beaver Dam to Arthur E. Helmer, Sr and Marie (Page) Winter.

Arthur, who was known to many of his family members as “Buster”, was a Vietnam veteran, serving in country from 1966-1969. He continued to serve in the U. S. Army, Army National Guard, Army Reserve and as a Department of the Army civilian employee for nearly 40 years before his retirement in 2005. He continued to show his fighting spirit the rest of his life, defeating lung cancer in 2018 so he could go on the Badger Honor Flight and battling to stay lucid long enough to say goodbye to and even share one last beer with his family and friends before death.

While in the military, Arthur met the love of his life, Charlotte (Auxier), and they were married on October 20, 1969. They gave birth to their first son, Gene (Brenda) Helmer, in 1970 and a second son, Steven (Cynthia) Helmer, in 1975 and eventually enjoyed four grandchildren, Natasha, Austin, Azalea and Summer.

Arthur loved working in his woodshop and, after retirement, spent a great deal of his free time making, selling and giving away a variety of creations including weather stations, bird houses and “hillbilly” bird feeders. One of his greatest joys was having his grandchildren help him in his shop and teaching them how to use many of his tools.

Arthur always put his family first and, even when he might not have been getting along with a relative, would still be willing to do everything he could to help them. He also had an uncanny ability to touch people’s lives just by meeting them and, because of this, had a steady stream of visitors in the hours leading up to his death.
