

Railsplitter Obituary

Catherine L. Jones

6 August 1952 – 6 August 2020

Catherine L. Jones, 68, of Malone, died August 6, 2020 at St. Agnes Hospital. She was born the daughter of Joseph and Gertrude (Albinger) Chesney on August 6, 1952. Catherine served in the U.S. Army from December 1985 - May 2010 in the personal records department, where she retired from. After retiring from the Army, she went on to work as an AODA counselor.

She was a member of St. Paul's UCC of Malone. Catherine volunteered at Chapter 52 bookstore and helped abused and battered women. She loves everything Native American or Southwest, anything that was a moose, and had an amazing green thumb. Catherine loved wine, winery's, reading, caring for her pets and traveling.

She is survived by her two sons, Corey (Brenda Yancy) Brunet, and Andrew (Pamela) Brunet; five grandchildren; Alisha Larson (Miller) Emily, Brayden, Haylee, and Coleman Brunet; great- grandchild, Addiason; four brothers, Harvey (Shari), Joseph, Norbert, and Robert Chesney; two sisters, Mary and Rosann Chesney; significant other, Ken Abernathy; and many nieces, nephews and other relatives.

SFC Jones was an AGR and reservist to the 2nd Bn 351st Regt 2nd Bde.