Railsplitter Obituary

He married Karen Krines on May 28, 1973 at St. Lawrence Church, Stangelville. Dan's passion for the outdoors started as young child going to the Pembine Hunting Cabin with his father and grandfather. His pride and joy was spending time at the log cabin that he built himself at Town Corner Lake in Dunbar. He really enjoyed fishing in Canada and most recently whitetail hunting in Saskatchewan, Canada. Dan especially enjoyed the time spent at "Thirsty Thursday's" with his Canada fishing buddies and all his "up north friends." Most of all he enjoyed spending time with his grandchildren boating, hunting, fishing and being their biggest fan at sporting events.

During his working years, along with his dedication to military service, he also supported many local organizations. He spent twenty years as a fireman with the Kewaunee Fire Department. He was chairman of the Kewaunee Chapter of Ducks Unlimited for twenty-five years to promote conservation. As a member of the Kewaunee Hunting and Fishing Club and the Kewaunee Trap Club, he taught young children to hunt safely which carried over to his children and grandchildren.
